

When traveling in cities where they are on the air, I am a regular listener to K-LOVE FM radio stations. If an LPFM broadcaster were to take K-LOVE's place then I would not have access to my favorite spiritually uplifting music. The service provided to the public by K-LOVE is invaluable in this spiritually dry climate. We need more of K-LOVE's message of hope and joy in this hopeless and sad world.